DISCLOSING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will disclose personal information in your loan file if your loan is assigned to another creditor or serviced by another institution. Under both circumstances, your personal information will be used consistent with the purpose for which it was originally collected.

We may disclose certain of your personal information with any co-borrower or co-sponsor, or guarantor on your account, in order to process your application, service your account, and provide the products and services you have requested from us. We also disclose personal information to service providers who do things on our behalf. For example, we will disclose information to title companies, appraisers, and insurance companies who assist us in the administration, processing, and servicing of your application and loan, as well as with vendors who provide us with technology, user assistance, research, and analysis services to us. When we disclose personal information for a business or commercial purpose, we enter a contract that describes the purpose and requires the recipient to keep that information confidential and not to use it for any purpose except performing the contract, unless otherwise permitted by law.

Personal information may also be disclosed when we believe it is necessary or appropriate to: (i) comply with applicable legal requirements, (e.g. regulatory, court, and law enforcement demands); (ii) respond to an emergency or otherwise protect the rights and property of CV3 and our employees, customers, or others, including to enforce any contract between you and us; (iii) address fraud, security, or technical issues; and (iv) in connection with, or during negotiation of, any reorganization, merger, sale, joint venture, assignment, transfer or other disposition of all or any portion of our business or assets.

RETENTION

We will retain your personal information for as long as is necessary to complete the purposes for which it was collected, or as may be required by law. We utilize the following criteria to determine the length of time for which we retain information: (i) the business purposes for which the information is used, and the length of time for which the information is required to achieve those purposes; (ii) whether we are required to retain the information in order to comply with legal obligations or contractual commitments, to defend against potential legal claims, or is otherwise necessary to activities potentially in violation of our policies and procedures applicable to you or against the law, to ensure a secure online environment, or to protect health and safety; (iii) the privacy impact on the consumer of ongoing retention; and (iv) the manner in which information is maintained in our systems, and how best to manage the lifecycle of information in light of the volume and complexity of the systems in our infrastructure.
